Dear Anita,

Although I'd know that for years Ted was not well, it is a shock to learn from Bob Culter that his illness is now terminal.

I'm very sorry to know it.

Having lived with such a potential for about 17 years now I have some appreciation of what this means and of what you are both going through.

and in particular what it can mean to you. I've thought about this often with regard to what it has meant and could mean for my wife.

I do hope that those who have particularly benefitted from what Ted did for them and are able, like Jim Garrison, now well off although I've heard also ill, remember and think of you and what they can do for you without great sacrifice.

While I do not think of anything I can do to help you, if you think there is, now or in the future, please let me know.

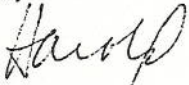

Meanwhile, I do hope that what time remains for Ted is as painless and untroubled as it can be.

I remember with appreciation his thoughtfulness when I was taken ill prior to the meeting at the NYU law school. He got me a doctor and did all else he could do.

That was in 1975. It seems so much longer now!

With whatever the future holds,

my best wishes and hopes,

Harold Weisberg
